THE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

A Daily Resume of Important Happenings.

JULY 24

Cincinnati will get the Grand Lodge meeting of the Elks' Order next year. In the Elks' musical contest at Baltimore, Weber's Cincinnati band was awarded first prize.

The Henry Clay monument in Lexington was seriously damaged yesterday morning by a storm. The head of the statue of Clay was blown off and a new statue will have to be made.

Gen. Cassius Marcellus Clay died at 9:10 o'clock last evening at his home at Whitehall, Madison county. He was in his ninety-third year. All his children were at his bedside at the time of his death.

With all the pompous splendor and ceremony at the command of the Roman Catholic Church, the body of Pope Leo was yesterday removed from the Vatican to the basilica of St. Peter's Cathedral, where it will lie in state for three days.

King Edward yesterday visited Trinity College in Dublin, and on his return was given a continuous ovation by crowds in the streets. Maude Gonne hung out a black flag in memory of the Pope, she said, which was torn down by the police.

Charles Hodges was yesterday removed from the office of superintendent of the free delivery of Post-office Department, on the charge of falsifying his diary, showing where he had been called by official duties and lending his traveling commission.

It is announced that every bookbinder employed in Government office at Washington will quit work if W. A. Miller, whose dismissal was revoked by the President, is retained. The Bookbinders' Union issues a statement setting forth their side of the case.

The application to the privy council of England for an appeal from the decision of Justice Caron, of Quebec, in the Greene and Gagne case has been granted. This is a notable victory for the United States and probably means the ultimate surrender of the fugitives by Canada.

Additional letters which Daniel J. Kelley claims to have received from former Lieut. Gov. John A. Lee, of Missouri, have been made public. The writer of the letters makes continuous appeals for money, in one instance describing himself as a man "with an itching palm."

Prince Ching has forwarded a communication to Minister Conger refusing to open Manchurian towns to foreigners. The State Department is at a loss to understand the action, which might be attributed to a design to please Russia, but believes the situation will be ultimately clarified.

Col. Morris B. Belknap called on President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay yesterday, had a twenty minutes' chat with the Chief Executive, declined an invitation to luncheon, and later declared there was no particular political significance in his visit. It is said the Kentucky Republican nominee asked the President to come to this State and make a few speeches during the fall campaign.

The special grand jury at Jackson has practically completed its work, and no more indictments are expected for any of the crimes growing out of the feud troubles. Joe Crawford and Ed Tharp, indicted on the charge of burning Ewen's hotel, have been released on bonds of $2,000 each, and their cases have been transferred to Estill county for trial. Gardner Plummer, indicted on the bribery charge, has given bond in the sum of $1,000. The jury yesterday indicted Mack and Dexter Howard for participating in the shooting affray with the Harveys' negroes at Cane Creek schoolhouse. The negroes will be released on the ground that they acted in self-defense.

Gov. Beckham spent the day at the Crab Orchard Fair yesterday. About 5,000 people were in attendance.

King Edward yesterday reviewed 15,000 troops and 5,000 men of the naval brigade in Dublin. At night their majesties held a brilliant court in the castle of St. Patrick's Hall.

Curtis Jett and Tom White were taken from Lexington to Cynthiana yesterday and lodged in the Harrison county jail. The Cynthiana military company is guarding the jail.

The new Pacific cable from San Francisco to Manila will be in operation after tomorrow, with the tolls of $1.75 a word on messages to any part of the Philippines outside of Luzon.

The conference of the American and Mexican Monetary Commissions with German representatives came to a close in Berlin. A uniform money system on a gold basis with silver circulation is recommended for China. The commissioners disclaim promoting bimetallicism.

The State Department now thinks that the report from Peking that China refused to open Manchurian ports refers to negotiations under way some time ago. There is no doubt that China has promised to open two or more ports, and the United States will insist that those pledges be redeemed.

The will of Gen. Cassius M. Clay provides a bequest of $10,000 for Dora Brock, the money to be held in trust. She is also to receive an interest in certain mining properties in Clay county. The will provides for an inventory and sale of his estate, and there are numerous bequests for personal friends. After all are paid, the remainder, if any, is to go to the Filson Club, of Louisville, and the Society of American Authors, of New York.

Pope Leo's will, written in his own hand, was opened yesterday at a meeting of the cardinals. All the property of which he was possessed is left to his successor for the benefit of the church. His relatives and his physicians are permitted to select presents from the valuables in the Pontiff's apartment in the Vatican. The Pope's body lay in state in St. Peter's during the day and thousands passed before it. Time for the public review of the body will be curtailed so as to end today, the funeral taking place tonight, because decomposition has set in.

Before the special grand jury at Jackson yesterday Charles Green, a car inspector, of Lexington, testified unwillingly that he was a witness to the assassination of Jim Cockrell, in Jackson, a year ago. He said he saw Curtis Jett and two other men whose names he did not know standing at the court house window, from which Cockrell was shot, with smoking rifles in their hands. Green said he could identify the two men if they were brought before him. Green was detained in Jackson under guard of soldiers, at the instance of McKinley Cockrell, who swore out warrants before Judge Cardwell against Bill Britton and Asbury Spicer, Britton, who is a deputy sheriff and a relative of Judge Hargis, is now under arrest, and a detail of soldiers left Jackson last night to arrest Spicer. The object of the arrests is to see if Green can identify Spicer and Britton as the men he claims to have seen in the court house window with Jett. The grand jury yesterday indicted Charles Callahan, Mat Holland and Ewen Bowling for shooting from ambush with intent to kill John D. Turner. All range from fifteen to eighteen, and Callahan is a nephew of Sheriff Callahan. L. T. Bolin, a witness in the Ewen bribery affair, has left Jackson, saying he had been warned he would be killed if he remained there.

On Devil's creek, in Wolfe county, DeCraw, who had had trouble with Alex. Hatton over a game of cards, went to Hatton's house, chased him away from the premises and shot and killed Mrs. Hatton. A posse is searching for Crow.

George W. Perkins will retire from the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. on January 1 and will be succeeded by J. P. Morgan, Jr. Mr. Morgan is said to have been dissatisfied with the management of some of his interests during his absence in Europe.

A telegram from Gen. Gomez, commanding the Government troops at Ciudad Bolivar, Venezuela, states that 1,500 men were killed or wounded during the battle, which lasted fifty hours. Many revolutionary officers were captured and others were slain.

The Controller of the Treasury has reversed the Auditor of the War Department, who held that claims presented by Capt. C. C. Calhoun on behalf of the Fourth Kentucky regiment, were not barred by the period of limitation. Capt. Calhoun will take the matter before the Controller in another form.

John A. Lee, former Lieutenant Governor of Missouri, cleared the seat sum of $10,000 during the legislative session of 1901, according to statements of Daniel J. Kelley, the fugitive bootler. Letters alleged to have been written by Lee to Kelley will be presented at the trials of the indicted State Senators at Jefferson City next week.

The body of Pope Leo will be interred tonight in a sarcophagus in St. Peter's, pending its removal to a final resting place in the church of St. John. Rumors that decomposition of the body had set in were found to be exaggerated, and the body will lie in state again today. Members of the Sacred college will probably enter their first meeting of the convocation of the election of a successor to the dead Pontiff will be held the following day. Cardinal Gotti's chances of election are said to have improved in comparison with the chances of others often mentioned.

A stock market panic broke on Wall street yesterday, which recalled the famous "Black Friday" of Jay Gould. New low records were made in stocks, and, though the market rallied somewhat at the close, there is still apprehension of more serious impending trouble. The failures of two prominent firms, T. J. Taylor & Co. and W. L. Stow & Co., were announced on 'change. The failures are not believed to reflect financial conditions, but are said to be coincident with the present period of liquidation. T. J. Taylor is closely associated with the interests of James R. Keene, whose fortune is said to have been affected by the suspension of the firm. During the day 76,000 Mexican central railway shares were sold, forcing the price from 19 down to 11.

The grand jury at Jackson yesterday investigated the charge of murder against Bill Britton and Asbury Spicer, arrested in connection with the assassination of Jim Cockrell. The jury refused to indict the men and they were released. Charles Green appeared before the grand jury in great trepidation and failed to identify Britton and Spicer as the men he saw with Curtis Jett when Cockrell was shot from the courthouse window. Riley Coldiron testified that he saw Jett and Britton fire the shots, but his testimony was attacked by numerous witnesses, and Alex. Hargis endeavored to secure an indictment against him on the charge of perjury. A Magistrate issued a warrant against against Coldiron, but on the advice of Judge Redwine the jury refused to indict him and he was released. The grand jury will adjourn after investigating some minor cases.

JULY 27

Internal revenue receipts in Kentucky for the year ending June 30 show that the total spirits distilled from all materials was $125,852,518.08.

Mrs. Dora Brock announces her intention of going into the courts, if necessary, to enforce her claim to the bequests provided for her in the will of Gen. Cassius M. Clay.

The salary of Minnie V. Cox, the negro postmaster of Indianapolis, Miss., has been reduced from $1,200 to $1,100 a year, dating from March 31 last. The office has been closed over six months.

The Bookbinders' Union, which has been fighting the reinstatement of W. A. Miller in the Government printing office, has decided not to walk out pending the investigation of charges filed against him.

Four hundred and fifty soldiers were prostrated and fifteen were killed as the result of a forced march of a Hungarian regiment while the thermometer registered 125 degrees. The colonel commanding finished the trip in a carriage.

The white people of the South are commended for refusing social equality to the negroes in a set of resolutions adopted by the A. M. E. church conference at Madison, Ga. It forces the negro to industry and economy in order to supply his needs, the resolutions state.

The special term of the Harrison circuit court for the trial of Curtis Jett and Tom White will convene Monday at Cynthiana. Judge Osborne Saturday gave out a statement in regard to his plan of conducting the trials. He expects little trouble in securing a jury and asserts that the proceedings will be entirely fair and impartial.

The special grand jury at Jackson completed its work Saturday and was discharged by Judge Redwine. Twenty-three indictments were returned, mostly for minor offenses. The bills against Plummer, Crawford and Tharp were the only ones directly connected with the feud troubles. The foreman expressed the opinion after adjournment that the jury would have indicted Bill Britton but for the influence of Alex. Hargis.

The body of Pope Leo was interred last night with all the ceremony at the command of the catholic church in St. Peter's cathedral, where it will remain until final burial in the church of St. John Lateran. It is estimated that 80,000 persons viewed the remains while the body lay in state for three days. A sensation was created in the Vatican Saturday by the announcement that the Fisherman's ring had been stolen from the dead Pope's hand. There is no clew to the thief.

A mob of 600 men attacked the jail Danville, Ill., to lynch a negro, James Wilson, who confessed to an assault on Mrs. Thomas Burgess. The Sheriff and deputies fired upon them, wounding some of them fatally. Before reaching the jail the mob had lynched a negro who fired upon them and killed a white man. After being driven away from the jail the mob made preparations to resume the attack, threatening to lynch the Sheriff and deputies together with a colored troop of militia who will likely be called into service.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Bosche's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that, for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectation and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. ## BAD ROADS

Cost the Country $600,000,000 a Year and

THE FARMER PAYS FREIGHT.

At the annual meeting of the Kentucky Press association in Lexington last week the following interesting paper on the subject of good roads was read by Mr. H. A. Sommers, of the Elizabethtown News:

The interest of the press in the building of good roads is one that should be strengthened and vitalized. The newspaper is not only the purveyor of news, but it is also the great motive power that starts and carries on nearly all material development. The country newspaper, especially, which does not look primarily to the advancement and improvement of the county in which it is published, falls in a measure, to use the opportunities to grow in the affections of its constituency, and in the still higher and nobler purpose of doing something for others. There is no question that the average editor cannot devote his time and talent with better results to his county than by a stimulation for good roads. He not only should create a demand for good roads, he should devise ways and means to have them, and then should be sufficiently informed on the subject to instruct how to build them. If the editors in Kentucky had devoted half the space in the past ten years to road building which they have to politics, which yields no dividends except to those who get office, the roads throughout the state would be a credit instead of a disgrace.

COST OF BAD ROADS.

In the Old World public roads were built before the railroads and that is the principal reason why all the countries in Europe are ahead of the United States in public highways. The Applan Way, built by Appian Claudius several hundred years B. C., 350 miles long and forty feet wide, is a better road than any in our country. Now that we have built the most wonderful system of railroads, we should build the most wonderful system of public highways. It will not cost as much to build the good roads as it did the railroads, but the returns will be greater. I think I can prove this. Statistics gathered from 1,300 counties in the United States show that it costs an average of twenty-five cents a mile to haul a ton of produce. On the level, on the best macadam road, a horse can draw 6,700 pounds; on the best dirt road he can only draw 3,600 pounds, or not quite half as much; on a muddy road he can only draw 1,100 pounds, about one-seventh what he can draw on a macadam road and about one-third what he can draw on the best dirt road. It costs the farmer seven times as much to carry his products to the railroad or the county town over a muddy road than it would over a good macadam road. If we now know how much it cost the farmers of the United States to get crops to market, we would know what bad roads cost and why good roads would pay a larger dividend to the country than our expensive system of railroads. Thanks to the United States Road Department, we do know. Gen. Roy Stone, of the Government service, says it costs the farmers annually $946,414,665.54 to move their products. As at least five-sixths of it is moved on dirt roads and frequently muddy roads there would be a saving to the farmers of at least 60 per cent. of this cost, if we had macadam roads. In round numbers this would be an annual saving of $600,000,000. Or to put it in another way, bad roads cost the people of the United States annually $600,000,000. This is more than all the railroads in the United States receive for freight.

Senator Daniel, of Virginia, says: "A good road is a universal public benefaction. A courthouse is for litigants; an asylum for the infirm; a jail for criminals; a theater for entertainment; a park for recreation; a school for instruction; a church for worshippers, but a good road is for everybody. A good road is the lightning rod to attract settlers. It is the best investment and the best advertisement any neighborhood or section can have."

In addition to the great saving in the cost of hauling farm products to market, there is another material interest advanced by good roads. A smooth macadam road will add from $5 to $10 per acre to the farm that it goes through or passes by. This fact can be demonstrated right here in Fayette county in the difference in the value of farms on turnpikes and those on dirt roads.

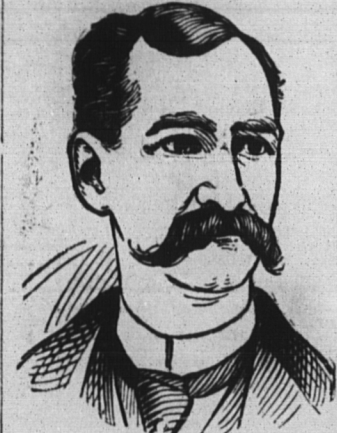

ANOTHER SIDE OF IT.

But the value of good roads does not rest upon a money standard alone. There are other and equally as important considerations. For several decades the census figures show that the cities have been increasing much faster in population than the country. The best brawn and brain from the farm is going to the cities because of the isolation of farm life. Man is a social creature, and if he can't get association in one place he will seek it in another. The wealth of the nation depends largely upon the farmers. They are the wealth creators; and if we would increase our farm products and improve the land, we must keep our young men at home instead of sending them to the cities. They are leaving on account of the isolation of life, and the way to destroy this isolation is to build good roads. One-fourth of the population of Kentucky cannot read nor write, and many thousands of them are prevented from acquiring an education because they have no roads to the schoolhouse, and it is too far to walk. Good roads would get more of the boys and girls into the school and help to blot out the stigma of illiteracy. Bad roads keep thousands from attending church and Sunday-school. Not half the children of the Commonwealth are enrolled in the Sunday-schools, because the roads to the church are too bad the most of the year for them to attend. We need good roads to make life desirable upon the farm, to increase the average of intelligence by putting people in close touch with the world, and each other, and for the advancement of education and for Christianity.

Good roads, like a college education, cannot be had in a day or a year, but require time, patience and hard work. You must first show their value to create a demand for them. You must then stop the old system of warning in lands and levy a tax to build them, or after you have got a good start bond the county. Then you must start out with the right things to build them with. I would mention the road grader, the rock crusher and the steam roller as the three things necessary to build a good macadam road, and no other road but a macadam road is a good one. The difficulties in the way are that every man wants the first good road built to be constructed by his farm, and that the average farmer does not know any more about building roads than he does about setting a man's leg, and the most unfortunate thing about it is that he thinks he does. Build the road first that the most people use and get a practical road man to build it. I know in many of the counties it will be said that they are too poor to build good roads. The reverse is true. They are too poor not to build good roads.

A SENATOR'S LETTER.

Peruna as a Nerve and Catharrh Tonic the Talk of the World.

Hon. W. V. Sullivan, U. S. Senator from Mississippi.

Hon. W. V. Sullivan, United States Senator from Mississippi, in a letter recently written to Dr. Hartman from Oxford, Miss., says the following: "For some time I have been a sufferer from catarrh in its most insidious stage, so much so that I became alarmed as to my general health. But, hearing of Peruna as a good remedy, I gave it a fair trial and soon began to improve. I take pleasure in recommending Peruna as the best catarrh cure I have ever tried."

Peruna cures catarrh wherever located. Peruna has no substitutes—no rivals. Insist upon having Peruna. Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O., for a free book on catarrh.

that the counties were not able to raise money rapidly enough to put up their part and the citizens had to wait for years after their 50 or 75 per cent. had been subscribed before the county donation or subscription got around to them. In my own county of Hardin there is about $10,000 annually being set aside for turnpikes. This is a small sum, it is true, but the people raise an equal amount every year by private subscription to secure it, and generally people on three or four roads bid for it. These facts prove that Federal aid would stimulate rather than discourage local assistance. I am firmly convinced that for every dollar the Government would appropriate for roads the State would give another (New York has but recently appropriated $50,000,000 for roads) the counties a dollar, and the people along the roads another dollar.

GOOD ROADS—GOOD RIVERS.

There are many reasons why the United States, should aid the building of good roads. It has spent $500,000,000 for rivers and harbors. If it is right to spend this vast sum for ship navigation why is it not right to spend a few millions for wagon "navigation"? The river and harbor appropriations benefit the cities chiefly. Why have not the rural districts an equal right to be helped? The last session of Congress appropriated $753,484,018; of this sum only $5,984,160 was for agriculture, and most of that was for seed that never came up and used by Congressmen for electioneering purposes. The farmers constitute more than half our population. They pay more than half our taxes. They build our cities, export 85 per cent. of all our products and create most of our wealth, and yet they receive less than one-half of one per cent. of Federal appropriations.

The farmers should demand Government assistance to help build the roads, and the rural press especially should back up this demand in a way that no Congressman from an agricultural district, whether he be Democrat or Republican, dare not vote against such a bill. I believe that Federal and State aid to roads is coming and that we will certainly have it in a few years. When it does come it will increase the development and prosperity of the country as rapidly as the building of railroads.

Until Federal aid is secured a road sentiment should be created by the press in every county in Kentucky, and road building should be encouraged. A county without good roads is like a deep river without ships to carry the produce of soil and forest and mine which line its banks, or like a railroad train loaded with goods and no engine to pull it.

We are authorized to announce

J. S. THOMPSON, as a candidate for Representative in the Legislature, from the district composed of Lawrence and Boyd counties, subject to the action of the Republican party.

Gov. Beckham has appointed Charles B. Poytz, Democrat, and George D. Denny, Republican, as members of the State Board of Election Commissioners.

The Georgetown Times says: Things have come to a pretty pass when it is necessary for negroes to flee from an Indiana town to Kentucky for protection from mob violence.

Race riots in Indiana are driving the negroes out of that State and they are going into the South in droves. They "don't like a nigger now" up north, yet they want to tell the southern people how to handle the race problem.

The nomination of Wm. M. Beckner, of Winchester, for a place on the Republican State ticket, brings to mind a characteristic description given of him by Senator Joe Blackburn a few years ago. At that time Beckner was affiliating with the Democratic party, so the description cannot be said to have been prompted by political prejudice. Beckner is notoriously ugly. Blackburn said he "had seen about forty pictures of Judas Iscariot and that no two of them looked alike, but they all looked like Bill Beckner."

INEZ.

A. B. Copley came up from Kenova July 27th. His little child is very ill. A number of the Eden folks were at Warfield Sunday to see Troy Wiles, who is very sick. Miss Elizabeth Scott, of Ashland, is visiting Mrs. Dempsey. Samuel Copley, of Catlettsburg, is visiting his father here. Jeff Newberry was here over Sunday. Miss Ida Hewlett, of Louisville, is visiting here. Police court was in session here Monday. Miss Gertrude Cassidy left here Saturday accompanied by her cousin, Miss Edie, to visit her father in Louisville. Frank L. Wright was called in haste Sunday to Warfield on account of some one setting fire to gas well No. 52. A runaway couple arrived here Sunday from Knott county, by the name of Waddle and Young. After securing the marriage license they found that neither Given nor Patrick was in town so they went on their way hunting a parson. Miss Nora Wright, of Tiffin, O., arrived here Tuesday. She is a sister of Frank Wright, who is Superintendent of the gas fields here. Rev. J. N. Andre preached in the court house Sunday night, but not because the churches were refused him. A few years ago there was a painter here by the name of Webster, who disappeared at midnight, so the story goes, and it was believed by a number that he was murdered and buried in the public square. So Monday a gang here made a search but found not the man. The truth is that Webster was seen leaving by one of our most reliable men and has been seen not later than last Christmas, not far away, following his old trade. Who has so bad an opinion of our town? We believe that the idea was only entertained by the curious.

PEACH ORCHARD.

John C. Welty, the noted lawyer and business man of Canton, Ohio, was here last Thursday. Mr. Welty gained a national reputation as an attorney in his defense of George, the woman who killed George D. Saxton, a brother-in-law of president McKinley, a few years ago. Mr. Welty's name has often been mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for Governor of Ohio. He is president of the Peach Orchard Coal Co., and came to look at some new mines that are being opened at this place. Governor Beckham's reply to his critics in assassination matters we believe contains the truth and cannot be disputed by his opponents. We believe that assassins should receive the death penalty for their crime whether committed in the mountains or in the Capitol Square at Frankfort. The people have at last found two bold, fearless and able attorneys who are going to see the law enforced and justice meted out to all criminals, and we hope people of their states, or even the nation, will honor them by electing them to any office they may ask for. I refer to the matchless A. F. Byrd, of Ky., and J. W. Folk, of St. Louis, Mo.

EAST POINT.

Still more refreshing showers. Dr. Ramey reports a deal of typhoid; six cases dismissed as out of danger. John B. Patton and Green Wells still serious. No deaths. Since our wholesale saloon has opened, Paintsville promises to become a mere suburb to our metropolis. Nothing succeeds like success. It is quite exhilarating to see the gray heads refreshed after the long drouth. How comforting to the families at home. Lewis Conley is building a residence opposite his store. Corn is $1 per bushel and hard to get. Much is being brought in from abroad. When the C. & O. shall be completed there will be no more dollar corn. Fruit tree agents beset our people and are a blessing to those who buy wisely. The attention of wise farmers is being more and more directed to fruit and grass. Thow that old hoe away and eat ice cream under the big apple tree, while the lambs and calves gather dollars on the green hillside.

J. C. B. Auxier has improved in contemplation on his premises. East Point and Hager Hill schools began nicely Monday. Len Conley is quite sick. Miss Badgit is teaching on Little Paint, and Quiller Thompson at Abbott Gap.

Warren Auxier takes the place of Foreman John Burk, who was killed. The News man will be around to see you now right along. Lay one little dollar by for him and get the old reliable, one more year. You can not realize how you will miss it, till it falls to come.

Two children of P. G. Rice and one of Dick Rice's on Middin Park, have been dangerously ill of typhoid, but are reported slightly improved under treatment of Dr. Lester.

John Wesley Mayo, of Paintsville, is visiting friends here.

They left Sunday for East Liverpool, where they will make their future home. We extend congratulations. Dot.

The ice cream supper would have been a complete success here last Saturday night if it had not been for some young men coming down from Morgan's creek with their revolvers and enough whiskey in them to make them feel brave enough to fight and settle an old quarrel that began on Morgan's creek some time ago; so they didn't quarrel very long until one young man got shot in his breast and the last we heard from him he was considered dangerously wounded. The citizens of this place are almost unanimous in their opinion that we had better not try to have any more ice cream festivals here after night until they get done with the soldiers in Breathitt county and the red union quills selling whiskey.

Governor White has decided to hold the annual encampment of the West Virginia National Guard, which commences August 3 and lasts 10 days, at Parkersburg. The change was made from Huntington because of smallpox conditions there. Charleston tried to get the camp, but the Governor refused to locate it on traction lines, whose employees are striking. Business men here tried to have the strike called off for 10 days, and the company agreed to give the men the wages they demanded for that period, but the strikers refused to consider the proposition, saying it would give the company more money to fight them with.

GEORGES CREEK.

Annet Julia Boyd departed this life on the 25th at the age of 75 years. She was laid to rest in the old family grave yard beside her husband, Andy Boyd, who was drowned in Big Sandy at the mouth of Georges Creek 37 years ago. Annet Julia will be missed in our neighborhood as she has spent her life with us and was a kind and loving old mother and was always ready to lend a helping hand and was beloved by all who knew her. Annet Julia's death was unexpected. Although she was enjoying as good health as any person at her age and had done up her work, eat supper and walked out on the front porch. Her son, Sherman, entering the gate saw her giving away, hastened to her rescue and found that she was dying. He called to his near neighbors for help, but all was too late. She died instantly. Annet Julia leaves nine children, and a host of grand children, and many friends to mourn their loss. The burial services were conducted by Rev. Tom Jeff Collins on the 27th.

State College of Kentucky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) College of Kentucky, offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Physical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post Graduate studies are also provided, leading each to a Master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers nearly fifty professors and instructors.

COUNTY APPOINTEES receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and lights, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses. The laboratories and museums are large, well-equipped, comprehensive and modern.

The Legislature appropriated $60,000 for a College home for young women and $30,000 for drill hall and gymnasium for men. The latter is completed and in use, the former will be ready for occupancy in October. Military tactics and science are fully provided for as required by Congress. Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the College to supply. Last year the matriculation was 604. Summer schools are provided for Pedagogy, Engineering and instruction in Science.

Specialists with the necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of Natural Science. The State College of Kentucky, though bearing hitherto the title of College, is the only institution in the Commonwealth doing, in any proper sense, University work.

The completion of the College Home for young women will provide facilities for good food and lodging. It is equipped with all modern conveniences including bath room and room for physical culture. It will be heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is afforded to them of a thorough education in Classics, Modern Languages, Literature, Science, Mathematics, Logic, Metaphysics, History and Political Economy. No other institution in the State offers advantages for the education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

BUSSEYVILLE.

Death came to Uncle George Roberts last Saturday evening after a lingering illness of several weeks. He battled valiantly for life, but the end came and he met it bravely, and died as he had lived, a bold soldier for Christ. He was one of the best citizens, a kind husband, an indulgent parent and a faithful and zealous christian. He was a volunteer in the civil war and has been a much loved and respected comrade. He was almost three score and ten years old. Was buried Sunday afternoon in the family burying ground near his home. Funeral rites attended by Rev. M. W. Copley. His loss will be greatly felt, but the loss to friends is eternal gain to him. He leaves a large family and a large train of friends and relatives to mourn their loss. The widow Pigg died at the home of Lindsey Pigg Saturday and was buried near there Sunday afternoon. Her husband had died some time ago. She leaves four children. Burial rites performed by Rev. W. J. Pigg. The wife of Thomas Shannon, just over on Lick creek, died Monday evening and was interred in the family graveyard at Mary's Chapel. She was a victim of typhoid fever, and until within the last few days was thought to be Improving. Obituary later. Gardolf Berry was thrown from his horse here the other evening and was picked up by George Workman, insensible, having fallen on his head, severely injuring his neck, shoulder and spinal column. At this writing he is thought to be considerably better. Gilbert Atkins is confined to his bed with a severe attack of liver trouble, fever and other complications. He was dangerously ill, but is now a little better. Dr. Dean is the attending physician. Some of our people are a little nervous over what might be termed an exposure to the smallpox, but we venture it is more scare than true. Bucksin Bess.

The present unsanitary condition of Louisa is inescapable and reflects seriously on somebody. The gutters are choked with filth of all kinds. Hog pens, stinking beyond endurance, are smelt in all directions, and cess-pools spread contagion and disease on the passing breeze. Is this nobody's business?

Standard Smith passed down on the morning train yesterday quite sick and was supposed to have fever. He was broken out and had a handkerchief over his face. He stopped at Buchanan's, at the home of his father-in-law, Chas. Warren, and Dr. Warren pronounced it a full developed case of smallpox.

Dr. Boland has just received a note from the Presiding Elder stating that he cannot reach Louisa before next Sunday evening, and requested the Doctor to fill the pulpit Sunday morning. As this is the 4th Quarterly meeting, let every one who can be present. Dr. Boland will preach a special sermon at 11 a. m., and the P. E. at 8 p. m. Quarterly Conference on Monday at 1 p. m.

It is learned with regret that H. G. Burchett is to move to Huntington about August 15th. He is to be prominently identified with a new candy manufactory and jobbing business just organized there, and in which he has stock. He is a hustling young business man who is very attentive to his duties, and will certainly succeed. He and his family have many friends who are sorry to see them leave Louisa.

One Case of Smallpox.

N. B. McGuire is confined to his home in lower Louisa with smallpox. The case was quarantined as soon as it developed. "Dutch" Harris also has the disease at the home of his parents across the river in Cassville. These two are the only cases in this vicinity. It is said they caught the disease in Catlettsburg. Citizens, officers and physicians should use every possible precaution to prevent a spread of the loathsome affliction. In Huntington there have been many deaths in the last two or three weeks. They have a deadly type of the disease. The two patients referred to above are getting along fairly well, and it is hoped that this is not as severe smallpox as they have in Huntington. Catlettsburg and Ceredo have a few cases. We hear that wild rumors of all sorts are going about, but the NEWS columns will contain the true facts from time to time, suppressing nothing, and if it should become unsafe to visit here you will know it. We expect such reports to be taken as will render it perfectly safe at all times to transact business in Louisa.

Now is the Time to Act.

EDITOR NEWS:—It is known that several persons were in to see N. B. McGuire after he got sick and up to the time it was pronounced smallpox. None of these people have been quarantined. Certainly it is somebody's duty to have such cases isolated until it is known whether they will have the disease. It has now been about nine days since the McGuire case became fully developed. The fearful responsibility will be realized too late if the disease spreads.

CITIZEN. Since the above was handed in, other citizens have called and urged us to make a demand for immediate action, calling attention to the very evident fact that now is the time to resort to stringent measures rather than after the disease has appeared in other cases and many more people have been exposed. Every person who was exposed to the one case now here should immediately be placed under quarantine and kept until all danger is passed. The public knows who these people are.

Also, it is a duty that each of these people owes to the community, as well as to family and friends, to use every precaution against spreading the disease, if they have been exposed to it themselves.

Catlettsburg authorities have been looking for Andrew Elder, who was exposed to a bad case there, and it is said he came up this way and went to the country. This fact is published as a warning to the people wherever he may be to see that proper precautions are taken.

Another Big Sandy.

About a week or ten days ago the Cincinnati Post printed an adverse report on the coals of Big Sandy. The paper stated that Senator Elkins had sent a special agent to investigate the Big Sandy coal fields, and that the agent made an adverse report, stating that the geological reports of said field were incorrect and that the coal did not exist in the quantities claimed.

The Press knew that there must be something wrong with the report and therefore put one of their special agents on the work with instructions to ferret it out to the bottom and find the cause of such a report being printed in the papers.

In his investigations he found that it was true that Senator Elkins had appointed a special agent to investigate the Big Sandy coal fields and that this agent had made an adverse report, but the Big Sandy that he investigated was the West Virginia Big Sandy and not our Big Sandy, which separates the States of Kentucky and West Virginia—Catlettsburg Press.

Two New Enterprises.

Louisa has just acquired two needed industries—a bakery and a merchant tailoring establishment. E. J. Wolfe, of Ashland, is fitting up the Evans building at foot of Main street for a bakery and will be ready to supply the market with fresh bread, cakes, etc., in a few days.

E. H. Littleton, of Charleston, W. Va., has opened a merchant tailoring business in the Gannell block, next to Arlington Hotel. Both the enterprises should be patronized liberally.

The annual Lawrence County Sunday School Convention in session here from last Thursday to Saturday was the most successful yet held. State Secretary Fox was present. The county secretary will furnish a full report for the NEWS.

Fred Lynch, age 21, and Miss Minnie McGowan, age 20, were married last Saturday night at the home of James Davis, by Rev. L. M. Copley. Mr Lynch is a young merchant, the "First Chance" and "Last Chance" man. His bride is a pretty Boyd county young lady who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Davis. This is a deserving young couple. Congratulations are extended.

YELLOWSTONE PARK.

A Visit to the Wonderland of the World.

Our stay in Salt Lake City extended from Sunday noon till Tuesday, 10 a. m., July 14th. It was a very interesting visit and we shall make it the subject of another article later on. Yellowstone National Park being really the objective point of this trip we desire to speak of it now.

TO YELLOWSTONE PARK.

The trip from Salt Lake City to Monida, Montana, (from which point the Park is entered on the west side) was made in twelve hours and was uneventful.

The country traversed on this route is barren until the upper valley of Snake river is reached, and the alkali dust is stifling. Irrigation has been resorted to in many places, resulting in changing small spots of the barren waste into beautiful green gardens and orchards. We saw one "sluice" along Bear river canyon where projecting rocks of considerable thickness had been tunneled to let the water pass along the mountain side through a carefully constructed ditch that led from a dam on the upper part of the stream to the lowlands below. It must have cost a small fortune to construct it. But these westerners seem to pay little heed to obstructions that would stagger people of other sections.

We were all in bed and asleep when Monida was reached and our cars were set on a siding. The elevation here is 7,000 feet, and it was so cool that the occupants of the car found double blankets and other cover necessary to their comfort. We were awakened at six o'clock and told to get breakfast at the hotel and prepare for the stage coach trip. Each person is allowed to take only 25 pounds of baggage through the Park, so nothing but necessities were put into the suit cases and grips, everything else being packed into the trunks and checked to Gardiner, the station where the railroad trip is to be resumed.

Monida consists of the railroad station, and a store. The latter, for instance, has linen dusters for sale at four dollars apiece and the people there tell you they are a necessity, as to drive through the Park is very dusty. Fortunately, we did not bite and a shower of rain kindly fell during our second night, settling whatever dust there may have been.

Our party of 66 was divided up into six coaching parties. The coaches carry twelve people each, including the drivers, and are drawn by four good horses. They are thoroughly comfortable vehicles. Each bears a different name, and the tourist uses the same coach in which he starts during the entire trip through the park. Our coach was the "Grotto" and it happened to be the first to drive up in front of the hotel. To it had been assigned Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Frost, of Providence, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Linn, of Northwest Iowa, J. W. Buchanan, of Grechada, Miss. R. S. Lesser, of Birmingham, Ala., Mrs. Lowenstein, of Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Meacham, of Hopkinsville, Ky., and the BIG SANDY NEWS representatives.

We started at 8 o'clock for Dwellie station, said to be 60 miles distant, but we learned before reaching there that the distance was really 70 miles. The first lunch station was 30 miles from Monida and we arrived there at noon, taking 45 minutes for lunch. The other 40 miles were covered by seven o'clock that evening. This length of drive in one day is somewhat startling to a Big Sandian, but we made it in comfort and with very little fatigue. The coaches contain four seats, upholstered in leather, each wide enough to seat three persons. A canopy top covers the vehicle. The road follows the foothills of the Continental Divide along one side of the famous Centennial Valley, which is from three to twenty miles wide. The stage driver swings his long whip, skillfully cutting a small bunch of hair from the backs of his horses, and the coach goes swinging around the winding road at an interesting rate of speed. At our first stop there was waiting us one of the best luncheons found on the entire trip.

Centennial Valley is a rich grazing territory. Snow-capped mountains are in sight all the way, and we passed within 50 feet of snow drifts. There are no trees in the valley and very few on the hills, but the ground is covered with rich green grass, and the greatest variety of wild flowers we have ever seen. Herds of fat cattle and sheep were frequently seen.

Numerous streams of rapidly running water, clear as crystal, were crossed on our drive along Centennial Valley. These streams are fed by the melting snow on the mountains. They abound with mountain trout, and these delicious fish are served at nearly all the eating places along the way. We passed Red Rock Lakes, one of the main sources of the Missouri river, the water flowing over 4,000 miles before resting in the gulf of Mexico. A few miles distant is Henry Lake, which sends its surplus water to the Pacific through the Snake and Columbia rivers. The trip through Centennial Valley is considered one of the most delightful summer coaching trips in the Rocky Mountains.

Dwellie is the first lodging place and it is 44 miles from the line of Yellowstone Park. This Hotel is known as Grayling Inn. The buildings are of logs and roughly constructed. The rooms are separated by calico partitions.

A RASH ACT.

There is said to be a special providence which takes care of children, fools and drunken people. So far as the devotees of booze are concerned it does seem that it takes considerable more to kill them than is required for sober folks. For instance: Last Friday the morning train was bringing up with its other passengers a car load of black people of both sexes. They were in charge of a contractor who was going to work the men on the railroad extension somewhere near Prestonsburg. Liquor had flowed freely in the coach, and many of the occupants were in various stages of intoxication. Among these was a saddle-colored dame named Lena, who had not only drunk deeply, but had dallied with "coke," as well. "Coke" is "coon" for cocaine, an insidious species of O-be-joyful much affected by the colored people. Under the combined influence of the two Lena soon became almost a maniac. She had a big racket with her "man" and tried to "eat 'em up Jake" generally. Filled in a frantic attempt to get out a car window she took advantage of a lull in the storm she had raised to make her way to the platform of the coach, and while the train was going at a 25-mile an hour clip just below the "old Licks" she took a header and plowed up the ground about a dozen yards before she stopped. The train was brought to a stand-still as soon as possible and several men started to pick up what they supposed was a mangled corpse. But to their great surprise before they had gone half a dozen yards Lena was on her feet and came a-runnin' and a-cussin'. But she had to be carried into the coach and at once sank into unconsciousness. At Louisa the Company surgeon, Dr. G. W. Wroten, was taken aboard and he went to Whitehouse with the injured woman. On account of her condition it was impossible to correctly diagnose her case. No bones were broken but she was evidently injured internally. At Whitehouse her friends took charge of her with the intention of getting her to Prestonsburg if possible. That she was not killed outright is a wonder.

Rev. George O. Barnes.

After an absence of twenty-three years this noted evangelist is again in Louisa. Those who heard him on the occasion of his first visit and who now nightly listen to him find but little change. There is the same mellow voice, but little touched by time and use, the same flashing eye, the same earnest, convincing manner. To those who heard him for the first time he is a revelation, and at times, a startling one. Their orthodox gets many a severe jolt, and they find it hard, if not impossible, to reconcile Brother Barnes and the Bible—as they have been taught it. But somehow, if you follow him closely with a mind open to conviction, he'll make you think he has proved every declaration "up to the hilt." Mr. Barnes began preaching in the public square Saturday night and is continuing services nightly, with two services Sunday. Large crowds attend and the audiences are very attentive. Many of the "old timers" very pleasantly remember Miss Marie and the "little organ" of long ago. They were great aids to the evangelist, but without them this honest, sincere, earnest man is a power for good.

Teachers for Louisa Schools.

The board of Education met Saturday night and selected the following teachers for the Louisa Graded Schools: Principal, F. H. Bolster. 1st Assistant, Miss Maggie O'Brien. 2nd Assistant, Miss Lillie McHenry. 3rd Assistant, Miss Mary Prose. Primary, Miss Mattie Wallace. Mr. Bolster recently graduated from a college at Delaware, Ohio. We could not learn anything further about him.

The school will open Sept. 14th.

Shooting at Fallsburg.

George, 20-year-old son of Joems Jordan, of Morgan's creek, shot Frank Bradley, age 26, at Fallsburg last Saturday night just outside a building where an ice cream festival was in progress. One shot landed dangerously near the heart and another made a slight wound in the back. Two shots went wild. It is now thought Bradley will recover. One report says the shooting was the result of former trouble and that no words passed between them. Another says Jordan came out of the house dancing, and Bradley made a remark of some kind.

DEATH

Claims a Number of Victims in Our County this Week.

Benjamin F. Kise dropped dead Wednesday afternoon in his store near the mouth of Georges Creek. The fatal summons came just as a violent storm reached that point. Heart disease was the cause of death. Mr. Kise was apparently in perfect health at the time. He had complained for a short time that morning of a smothering sensation, but the trouble seemed to have passed away.

Mr. Kise was about 55 years of age. The county did not have a better citizen. He was a man of the highest integrity and a true christian gentleman. A wife and two small children survive him.

The burial took place yesterday in the family grounds. Some friends from Louisa attended the funeral.

George, son of Bank Hall, died of Bright's disease at his home a few miles from Louisa. He was about thirty years old, and leaves a wife and three small children. George was quiet, industrious young man and a good citizen. His death brings deep sorrow to many friends.

Mrs. Thos. Shannon died of typhoid fever at her home on Lick creek, four miles from Louisa, Tuesday morning, and it was necessary to bury the body that afternoon. Her age was about thirty years. Besides a husband, four little children are left. Deceased was a daughter of Mordecai Wilson.

Our Busseyville correspondent tells of the death of two people in that neighborhood. Also the Georges Creek correspondent reports a death.

Killed by a Train.

James Fraley, age about 24, was killed by a train at 3 a. m. Monday, just above the first trestle in lower Louisa, known as the Lucky trestle. The body was cut into many pieces and scattered along the track for some distance. Some difficulty was experienced in identifying the man. The verdict of the jury at the inquest was that he came to his death in an unknown manner.

Drew Thompson says he was with him in that locality until 2 a. m., and his theory is that Fraley went to sleep on the track. He was employed on a push boat operated by Dave France and was to go to work that morning. The accident occurred in front of France's house. Fraley boarded there, but probably did not want to disturb the family at that hour. The train that killed him had a number of cars loaded with stone for the work going on above here. None of the crew saw the man and did not stop the train.

Resolutions of Sympathy.

The Juvenile Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, at a full meeting on July 19th, 1903, adopted the following resolutions: Resolved, First, that the officers and members of this society offer their deep sympathy to our worthy member, Roland Horton, in his great bereavement, the loss of his beloved father.

Resolved, Second, that these resolutions be spread on our minutes, and a copy be sent to the BIG SANDY NEWS for publication, and a copy sent to him.

MARGARET LACKEY, Sec.

Last Saturday morning Justice's delivery horse took fright at some children throwing dirt and ran away. The horse little John Wood was riding took fright at the Justice horse and wagon and ran away. Several good women with children scattered about promiscuously took fright at little John's horse that took fright at the dirt that the children threw, and they refused to be comforted until each learned that her own precious lamb was unhurt and that beyond the loss of a tooth and a slight shaking up caused by the fall from the horse that scared at the Justice horse and so forth, John was uninjured.

Maria Boler, of color, chased her man Frank through the streets Sunday night, bombarding him with the most inelegant language in her depraved vocabulary, and disturbing the peace of all decent people within hearing. She was taken into court Tuesday, but escaped the punishment so richly deserved by taking advantage of a slight technicality in the trial, much to the disgust of the public.

School Books.

New and second hand school books in large quantities are now in stock at Conley's store. These second hand books are all in good condition and the prices are considerably below new ones. Some are rebound, some are only slightly soiled, all are whole. We also have a full line of school supplies.

The oil of insincerity is more to be dreaded than the vinegar of vituperation.

Queen Quality

Fit and Style!

There are some things which can't be improved. One of these things is the "Queen Quality" shoe for women. You can make it more elaborate, you can decorate it, embellish it, use costly materials and all that. But for $100 a pair you cannot make a better shoe than "Queen Quality," having regard solely to the two great essentials of FIT and STYLE.

This means that mechanically it is perfect. As for appearance, the fact that one hundred thousand women choose it instantly above all other shoes would seem to indicate that it is attractive. Why don't you go so far as to try on a pair the next time you go to the store? It costs nothing to see them fit your foot.

12 Minutes for Lunch.

That is the average time spent in a large city restaurant by three thousand lunchers. It takes three hours to digest a fresh egg soft boiled; three hours to digest a boiled apple dumpling; three hours to digest a fresh roast beef. In fact, three hours is the time required to digest the average twelve minute lunch. The object of the busy lunch is to let the busy man get back to his office work. But when the brain is active, the stomach is inactive for lack of necessary blood. The natural consequence is indigestion, and indigestion opens the door to many diseases.

Indigestion is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

"It is with heartfelt gratitude that I send this testimonial which I wish you to publish with my name and address," writes Mr. Willis Seay, of Washington, D.C., "I had a severe case of indigestion, and at the age of 21 I was broken down with dyspepsia. All sorts of food were taken, but I could not eat without distress. Could only eat a few certain things and was not able to work half the time. Every thing I tried only gave me temporary relief. My wife finally persuaded me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Heavenly Pellets.' I took six bottles of the Golden Medical Discovery and two of the Heavenly Pellets. I then felt so well that I stopped taking medicine. Several months later, however, I caught the habit of eating too much, and I am now able to eat anything that is set before me and enjoy it. I am 27 years old and this is the first time I have ever been well."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser in paper covers is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Catarh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called Catarh of the Stomach. For years I suffered with Catarh of the Stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. When you are suffering from rheumatism, the kidneys must be attended to at once so that they will eliminate the uric acid from the blood. Foley's Kidney Cure is the most effective remedy to this purpose. R. T. I cannot speak too highly of this great medicine." Sold by Louisa Drug Co.

I have suffered with stomach trouble for years. Could not eat anything but milk toast for months, but since I used Kodol I can eat anything and feel that my health is better than it ever was in my life. I cannot say enough for Kodol for it has saved my life and I know that it will cure any case of Dyspepsia if taken as directed.—M. D. Settle, M. D., Big Hill Ky. Sold by Louisa Drug Co. J. D. ## OBITUARY.

Joseph Rayburn died at his home on Queen's Creek near Hubbardtown in Wayne County W. Va. at the age of 65 years, July 17, 1903.

He had not been in good health for some three or four years. He had been visiting his son Henry Rayburn on Big Harriett and was apparently in as good health as he had been for some past weeks. He returned to his home July 15th and as the evening hours passed away he was mostly talking of his readiness and being prepared to leave this world of sickness and death.

He seemed to think that all was well with him. His advice to his friends and children was to prepare for death. Shortly after retiring for the night it was noticed he was not resting well. His son, Robert Rayburn, entered the room and he said to him "This time, I am gone." He was very restless for a short time, when he fell asleep and never woke any more. He had three sons, a sister and brother, all of whom were by his bedside when death came, except the brother who came shortly afterward. We feel that some words of respect are due to his honored memory. Endearing words could not express the feelings of the family or relatives, yet it is surely worth our while to spend a few moments in reminding ourselves and telling to what a good father he was. For two years he had stood upon the wall of Zion declaring the power of God and the hope he had in making heaven his home. He leaves three sons to mourn their loss. But we must not weep as those who have no hope. May the blessings of our Heavenly Father ever be with each one of us and help us to meet a dear father and mother who have gone to the Spirit land and their bodies are laid away in the cold and silent grave. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. R. A. Billups.

The Foundation of Health.

Nourishment is the foundation of health—life—strength. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the one great medicine that enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest, assimilate and transform all foods into the kind of blood that nourishes the nerves and feeds the tissues. Kodol lays the foundation for health. Nature does the rest. Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and all disorders of the stomach and digestive organs are cured by Kodol. Sold by Louisa Drug Co. J. D. Biggs Mgr.

No False Claims.

The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "sure cure for consumption." They do not claim it will cure this dread complaint in advanced cases, but do positively assert that it will cure in the earlier stages and never fails to give comfort and relief in the worst cases. Foley's Honey and Tar is without doubt the greatest throat and lung remedy. Refuse substitutes. Louisa Drug Co.

The State Sunday School Convention, which meets at Lexington, August 18-20, should not be forgotten by the Sunday School workers of this county. The prospects are that this will be the largest convention ever held. Fully one thousand delegates are expected.

About ninety County Conventions have been held since May 1st, and the whole state is aroused.

Excell, Pearce and Bryner are names to conjure with. My, will it not be fine to meet and hear and know these great workers and join with from two thousands to three thousand in singing hallelujahs under the leadership of the incomparable Excell! And just think what it means to come in vital and sympathetic touch with one thousand of Kentucky's leading Sunday School workers. This will be a liberal education in itself. No Sunday School worker can afford to miss it. No one can form any conception of what a great and inspiring convention like this is worth to him until he has attended one.

Address the General Secretary, Louisville, for details.

MRS. L. S. ADAMS.

OF GALVESTON, TEXAS.

"Wine of Cardui has indeed been a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women." Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of those ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For a stomach, liver or bowel disorder, Theodor's Black-Draught should be used.

Women Shoot Strait.

"Do you know that it is strange but true that as a rule women are better shots than men?" asked an expert shot last night. "People will not believe that statement until they think about it a matter for a while, but they finally realize that it is true."

"A striking way to prove my assertion is that you never hear of a woman shooting at a man or a burglar, but what she hits him. Men frequently miss, but it is very rare that a woman does not hit the object, and generally in a fatal place."

"I have heard men who had experience with shooting affairs, such as detectives on large police forces, state that they would rather have two men shot at them than one woman."

"There are several women shots in the world who are as good as can be found, and frequently when women go hunting they are more successful than the men. The reason for their ability to shoot has never been explained satisfactorily, although one cause is said to be that they shoot in a natural manner and do not try to pose as do men."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

It is every where admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. I was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by A. M. Hughes.
